NORMONT JUNIORS TRIUMPH, 40-8 IN SAN PEDRO

Normont Terrace Juniors smothered Western Terrace, 40 to 8, last week in a touch football game at Anderson Memorial, San Pedro.

Forbes, Cisneros and Mayes were outstanding for Normont as the local Juniors scored in every period.

Normont's lineup included Cole, end; Mayes, guard; Naonax, center; Clair, end; Forbes, quarter; Cisneros, half and Garrison, fullback.

TERRACE MITES DOWNED BY VULTURES, 24-7

Striking three times in the first half via the air lines, Mahar's Vultures recently gave the Normont Terrace midgets a sound 24-7 drubbing.

Mahar intercepted one of D. Cole's passes in the final quarter to complete their scoring.

Cole picked up a Mahar pass in the third period and carried it to the two-yard stripe to set up the single Normont score. Cole then threw the touchdown pass to Hammond.

UNIQUE POSTAL SYSTEM

Some natives of Australia have a unique postal system. According to the Encyclopaedia Britannica, "mail men" there carry a message stick, with a notched message on it. The stick is carried in a net bag.

TOUCHDOWN TWINS... Little Seco Torres, (left) all 134-lbs. of him, shows how he gives the hand-off from the quarterback spot to Howard Bugbee, left half, to set up a Redondo score. Bugbee scored three of the Seahawks' four touchdowns against San Bernardino last week, and Torres got an assist when he passed to Jack Gramet, end, for the fourth tally in the game which Redondo won, 26-6. Both boys will be in the Seahawks' starting lineup against our Torrance Tartars tomorrow night in the Redondo bowl.

SPECIAL CITY BUSES RUN TO HIGH SCHOOL GAMES

Municipal bus transportation to all Torrance high school football games, all being played nights outside of Torrance, has been arranged, according to W. H. Muxphey, manager of the municipal bus lines.

The Torrance "home" games are being played in the big, well-lighted Redondo bowl.

The new service was started last Friday night when the Tartars met the Covina eleven at the Redondo Bowl.

Tomorrow night, when Torrance plays the opening Bay league game with Redondo High, a big crowd is anticipated and it is expected several buses will be needed to make the trip.

Other games are: Saturday, Oct. 11, St. Monica, at Redondo; Friday, Oct. 17, Jordan at Jordan; Friday, Oct. 24, Inglewood at Inglewood; Saturday, Nov. 1, Santa Monica at Redondo; Friday, Nov. 7, Beverly Hills at Redondo; Friday, Nov. 15, Leuzinger at Redondo and Friday, Nov. 21, El Segundo at Redondo.

School buses are barred by law from carrying students to any but educational activities, and sports are not considered as such.

A Crown bus is to be at the Torrance high school on Friday, Oct. 3, at 7:00 p. m. to load adult passengers and school children for Redondo Beach.

At 7:10 p. m. bus will proceed to Beacon Blvd. and thence via Torrance Blvd. to Irena st. in Redondo Beach; thence right on Irena to the Redondo high school athletic field. At the end of the game, after loading all passengers, it will return by the reverse route to Torrance high school and then the barn.

Fares will be 10c one way or 20c round trip for all passengers, students or adults.

Hough Uncovers Narbonne B Pass Prospects

Four top-notch passing prospects were claimed this week by new Coach Harry Hough, of the Narbonne High lightweight grid squad.

The Narbonne B's face El Segundo this afternoon at the Beach city in a Los Angeles City schools "practice scrimmage"—no score, no time, no yardage. It is the first meeting of the season with another school for the local lightweights.

The four boys that Hough is counting on via the airlines are three fullbacks, Gil Olvera, Al Marrieta and Dick Suarez; and a halfback, Norman Bluff.

First tussle of the season for the Gaucho lights is a practice meeting with Riis here on Friday, Oct. 10.

While heralding his quartet of fingers, their aerial-minded mentor deplored the lack, at present, of suitable receivers, but expects to uncover a few before the chips are down.

Best bets right now for the pass-snagging assignments are ends Charles Garrison and Leland Griffin. Close behind but lacking experience are Harold Duncan and Jerry Spratt.

Spedy Sam Isom is expected to shine at tackle along with former guard Howard Trout and James Mays.

A three-way battle is developing for the two guard posts among lettermen Earl Moore and Vincent Lovell, and former second stringer Al LaFontaine.

Pivotmen Newton Rowell and Freshman Jimmy Timms, a particularly likely prospect, are bat-
